JAMIE TAYLOR

LPGA PROFESSIONAL / MBA

ABOUT ME

With over 20 years experience working in the golf industry, Jamie is passionate about helping people fall in love with the game. She learned the game at a young age later earning a full-ride scholarship to play on the women's golf team at Gannon University where she served as captain.

She was hired by Cleveland Metroparks in 2007, where she managed operations and instructional programs for two of their courses. In 2015, she headed to LPGA Headquarters, and served as Program Manager for LPGA*USGA Girls Golf, writing curriculum to help golf professionals run engaging clinics for adults and juniors.

Jamie now serves as a Secretary for Southeast Section of the LPGA Professionals and Founder of JT Mobile Training providing her expertise and skills to help golf industry professionals better connect with golfers of all backgrounds.
